- Accident occurred on weekend during September or November

2006 Significant Factors

- South Texas Quail Hunting incident involving Dick Cheney, Vice President of the United States, and Harry Whittington from Austin, garnered much attention for hunting accident awareness and prevention.
- Careless handling while loading, transporting, removing from vehicles, crawling and running with loaded firearms.
- Squirrel, rabbit and non-game hunting incidents up.
- Hunter judgment mishaps down; skill and aptitude problems up.
- More teenage shooters involved in 2006 hunting incidents; less accidents in the 30-39-age category.
- Number of Hunter Education Graduates increased significantly.
- More self-inflicted injuries than in the past.

2006 FATAL ACCIDENTS

Date	County	Shooter's Age/Gender	Firearm	Animal Hunted	Self-Inflicted?	Hunter Ed. Graduate? (Shooter)
9-12	Tom Green	44/M	Shotgun	Dove	No	No
Comments:	Victim was covered by shooter swinging on game outside of his safe zone of fire. As doves were flying in, victim stood up, in the line of fire of the shooter. He had just arrived on the scene in a golf cart. Victim was struck in the head by size 7 ½ pellets..
Prevention:	Always point the muzzle in a safe direction; always stay within a safe zone of fire; position yourselves so that you never move into another hunter's zone of fire; communicate with hunters in your hunting party; attend a hunter education course.
11-11	Lipscomb	45/M	Rifle	Deer	No	No
Comments:	Shooter mistook victim for a deer and carelessly discharged his .308 rifle towards the victim. Victim was about 260 yards away, in low light conditions and the shooter had frost on his scope.
Prevention:	Always point muzzle in a safe direction; be absolutely sure of your target; use binoculars to properly identify game before raising the firearm to the target; handle firearms carefully; attend a hunter education course.
12-2	Zavala	54/M	Rifle	Deer	Yes	Yes
Comments:	Shooter exited deer blind and carelessly handled and/or apparently dropped his loaded .270 rifle. Based on the investigation it looks like the butt struck the ground discharging the rifle. The bullet struck victim in the head.
Prevention:	Always point muzzle in a safe direction; unload the second you are no longer hunting, especially while entering or exiting a blind/stand; handle firearms carefully; treat every firearm as if it was loaded; apply what was learned in hunter education.
12-22	Waller	37/M	Shotgun	Waterfowl	No	No
Comments:	Victim was covered by shooter swinging on game outside of his safe zone of fire. Victim stood in the line of fire of the shooter, while both were shooting at low flying geese. Both were on a sloped dike adjacent to the wetland. Victim was struck in the head by size BB pellets. Shooter was in possession of marijuana and was violating the law at the time of the incident.
Prevention:	Always point the muzzle in a safe direction; always stay within a safe zone of fire; position yourselves so that you never move into another hunter's zone of fire; communicate with hunters in your hunting party; remember that drugs/alcohol and hunting do not mix; always obey hunting and other laws; attend a hunter education course.
