

NATURE LOVERS
TEXAS PARKS AND PUBLIC LANDS
MY KEEPSAKE

Read the Introduction on page II.

Jot down the sentence in the introduction paragraph that makes the biggest impact on you.

Create a list of questions that you would like to have answered as you journey through this section of the scrapbook.

Turn the page and meet two Nature Lovers who helped promote conservation and the creation of national and state parks.

Study the picture of the two men on page I2 and try answering the 5 “W” questions below (before scrolling down to read about the picture.)

WHO do you think these two men were?

WHAT do you suppose they were doing?

WHEN do you think this photograph took place?

WHERE do you think they were?

WHY do you think they were there?

Now click to enlarge the photograph. Scroll down and check your answers!

Find out why Good Roads Lead Back to Nature on pages I4 – I5.

Locate and click on each of the primary sources and write about how they support the theme of this section, “Good Roads Lead Back to Nature.”

Photographs –

Article –

Advertisement –

Map –

NATURE LOVERS
TEXAS PARKS AND PUBLIC LANDS
MY KEEPSAKE

Learn about Governor Neff and the Texas State Parks Board on pages I6-I7.

Read the text and look at the pictures to discover more about how Texas Parks got started – and who we need to thank!

Write a thank you note to Governor Neff and the Texas State Parks Board. Be sure to include all the reasons for your gratitude.

Blank area for writing a thank you note.