Window Schedule

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Sill</th>
<th>Hosted by</th>
<th>Material</th>
<th>Panel Material</th>
<th>Glazing</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>01</td>
<td></td>
<td>01</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Window Types

- 02 Window Types
- 03 Temp. Window Protection
- 05 TYP. Window Sill

Window Restoration Key Notes

- 1. Cutaway view of window in new condition.
- 2. Choose window type from the table above.
- 3. Replace all glass with new glass.
- 4. Replace all wood parts with new wood parts.
- 5. Use new materials for restoration.

Window Restoration General Notes

- A. Restore window, catalog existing window finishes and materials for restoration.
- B. Replace all failed windows.
- C. Restore all missing window details.
- D. Use new materials for restoration.
- E. Ensure all new materials match existing materials.

Recommended Materials

- A. Wood: Oak, ash, or other suitable species.
- B. Glass: Clear or tinted, depending on the desired effect.

---

McCoy Collaborative

Preservation Architecture, PLLC
9300 Main Street Suite 4
Houston, TX 77025
Phone: (210) 877-8199

---

MONUMENT HILLKRIEGSBEREY SHS

RENOVATIONS

PROJECT NUMBER: 12268