

Read the Introduction on page 23.

Jot down the sentence in the introduction paragraph that makes the biggest impact on you.

Create a list of questions that you would like to have answered as you journey through this section of the e-book.

Experience a Once in a Lifetime opportunity on pages 24-25.

Read the letter on page 25 detailing a day-in-the life of a CCC member.

Create a schedule complete with times and activities that could be distributed to all CCC members.

Do you think the CCC was a “once in a lifetime” opportunity? Why or why not?

Turn to pages 26 for Chances to Learn Things Interesting and Useful.

Read the text and explore the images to learn about the things CCC members could do to educate themselves.

Why do you think education was so important in CCC camp life?

How did women play a role in the CCC?

Meet Ezekiel Rhodes and Herman M. Kelch on page 27 and 28.

Read the interviews and have a laugh with these two CCC Alum. Why was humor so important in CCC daily camp life?

Listen to the song, "Loveless CCC" on page 27. Write down what this song means in your own words.

EXTRA! EXTRA! Read all about it on pages 29-30.

The CCC nationwide newspaper was titled Happy Days. Why do you think this title was chosen? What are some other names they could have used?

Why do you think it was important for individual camps to have their own newspaper?
