RV CAMPING & GROUP FACILITIES IN TEXAS STATE PARKS

RVs in Texas State Parks

Recreational vehicles help millions of park visitors spend more time outdoors in nature. Whether you travel in a Class A motorhome or with a cozy pop-up, stay the night or spend a few weeks in the perfect places for your home away from home.

Our caring, professional staff is available to make your stay the best it can be, including on-site park police officers to help ensure everyone's safety. If you are traveling in a larger RV group, please contact our group reservations desk in advance to help you plan your visit.

Hookups and Campsites

We want your RV experience in a Texas State Park to be pleasant, unique and memorable.

Free Fishing in State Parks!
No license required
to fish inside a
Texas State Park.

Our parks often feature large campsites, wide-open spaces and incredible natural scenery—from forests to canyons to the Gulf coast. To help make your stay as comfortable as possible, many parks also offer water and electric, and water, electric and sewer hookup amenities, with both 30 and 50 amp service, and with upgrades ongoing throughout our system each year. There are also great activities, such as miles of hiking and biking trails, horseback riding, fishing, guided interpretive tours, canoe and kayak rentals, great state park stores, and much more to enhance your visit.

Group Reservations

Texas State Parks have accommodations that are perfect for RV group getaways, weddings, reunions, retreats, meetings and other special occasions. Our staff can assist you to make sure your sites, facilities, deposits and visitation fees are packaged to accommodate your group's specific needs.

Group Facilities

Many of these facilities were built by the Civilian Conservation Corps, using native stone and wood to make for a one-of-a-kind setting and historic backdrop for your event.

So whether you're looking for a simple picnic shelter or an elaborate, air-conditioned group dining hall, we've got you covered.

Book your group facility now!

CCC-built group dining hall and refectory at Caddo Lake State Park

Group Recreation Hall at Stephen F. Austin State Park

CCC-built group dining hall facility at Lake Brownwood State Park

Many state parks offer picnic pavilions for large groups, or individual picnic sites and shelters as well

GEICO® ROAD TRIP TIPS

BEFORE YOU GO...

COVER UP: Make sure your vehicle insurance and registration are up-to-date. Visit geico.com for a free quote and to enroll in their Emergency Road Service plan.

STAY IN TUNE: Take your car or RV for a thorough check-up and make sure everything is in working order.

THERE'S AN APP FOR THAT! Numerous apps designed for the 21st century road trip can help you save money on gas (Gas Buddy), avoid traffic and tolls (iExit), teach you how to fix a flat tire (Breakdown Lane) and find the best local attractions and restaurants (Roadside America).

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT: Burn DVDs with music, comedy, podcasts and books so you don't use up the power on your electronic devices. Subscribe to a satellite radio station for even more choices.

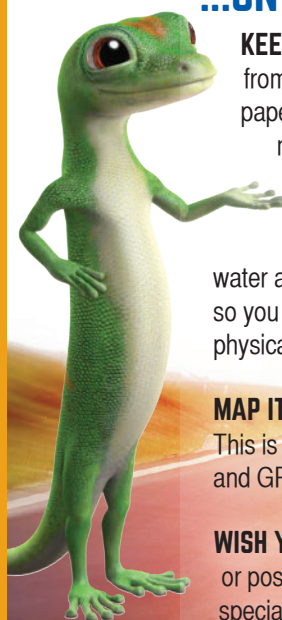

...ON THE ROAD

KEEP IT CLEAN: A garbage bag will prevent clutter from accumulating at your feet. Keep wipes and paper towels handy for those inevitable spills and messes. Create zones in your vehicle to keep things organized and easy to find.

STAY HEALTHY: Keep a cooler filled with ice, water and fresh food, or stop at a local farmer's market so you don't rely on fast food. Make sure you do some physical exercise every day.

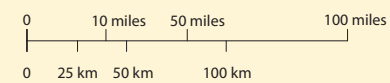

MAP IT OUT: Record your journey on an atlas or map. This is a great way for kids to learn an important skill and GPS isn't always available!

WISH YOU WERE HERE: Write a blog from the road or post travel updates on social media to share this special experience with your friends and family.
