Meridian State Park
Prairies and Lakes
Hidden away in the wooded hills northwest of Waco lies Meridian State Park, a haven for nature lovers and fishing enthusiasts. The park’s 72-acre lake offers fishing in addition to swimming and no-wake boating. A hiking trail encircling Lake Meridian features limestone outcroppings with fossils, a scenic overlook and aquatic vegetation. Birdwatching is excellent and there is a good chance of seeing the rare Golden-cheeked Warbler.

Camping: Full hookup, water and electric, primitive, primitive with water, and group primitive campsites (restrictions apply); screened shelters also available.

Dining Hall: Day-use facility (capacity 50).

Picnicking: Picnic sites with tables and grills.

Swimming: Swim at own risk in lake.

Boating: No-wake boating in lake. Boat dock and ramp.

Fishing: ADA accessible fishing pier. Possible catches in lake include bass, crappie, catfish and bream.

Trails: 5 miles of hiking and nature trails. 500-yard paved ADA accessible trail.

Texas State Parks Store: Gifts, books and more.
