RAY ROBERTS LAKE STATE PARK

Johnson Branch State Park, nestled in the Eastern Cross Timbers along Ray Roberts Lake, offers a variety of recreational opportunities. The 30,000-acre reservoir is ideal for fishing, sailing, boating, water skiing, and swimming at the park's sandy beach area. Nine miles of trails through wooded terrain appeal to hikers and bicyclists, and offer great opportunities for bird watching, wildlife watching, and relaxing. White-tailed deer, eastern cottontails, greater roadrunners, painted buntings, great horned owls, and wintering bald eagles can be seen around the lake.

Camping: Campsites with water and electricity. Also primitive sites with water.

Group Facilities: Two group picnic pavilions.

Picnicking: Day-use areas with tables, grills, shade shelters and a playground.

Swimming: Swimming beach on lake.

Boating: Boat ramps. Marina.

Fishing: Stocked Kid Fish pond. Fish-cleaning stations. Lake offers largemouth bass, white bass, crappie, perch and catfish.

Trails: 9 miles of trails, including a 2.8-mile concrete trail and DORBA trails.

Located in Cooke and Denton counties. From I-35 North, take Lone Oak Road exit, turn east, then 7 miles to park entrance on the right.
