STATE PARK

Bastrop State Park lies in the heart of the Lost Pines area of Central Texas. Visitors enjoy hiking the trails and biking the roads including scenic Park Road 1C to Buescher State Park. Most of the park's strikingly beautiful facilities were constructed in the 1930s by the Civilian Conservation Corps. Rent a rustic full service cabin or the Refectory to experience the history and beauty of the CCC craftsmanship which has earned the park a National Historic Landmark designation. The popular swimming pool gives visitors a break from the summer heat.

-  Camping: Campsites with water only, or water and electricity, or water, electricity and sewer.
-  Cabins: Full service cabins (accommodate two to eight).
