STATE PARK

At Big Spring State Park, visitors love to hike, bike and bird-watch on this 382-acre parcel of rural land. Visitors should be on the lookout for horned lizards and roadrunners along a three-mile scenic drive looping around the park, which sprawls across a high mesa called Scenic Mountain—so named because of the beautiful sunsets and scenic views that it affords. Below the limestone bluff lies the town of Big Spring, named for a large spring that once flowed nearby.

Group Facility: Picnic pavilion (capacity 50).

An ideal site for weddings, or church/company/graduation picnics.

Picnicking: Picnic sites with shade shelters and grills. Playground nearby.

Interpretive Center: Indian and natural history exhibits.

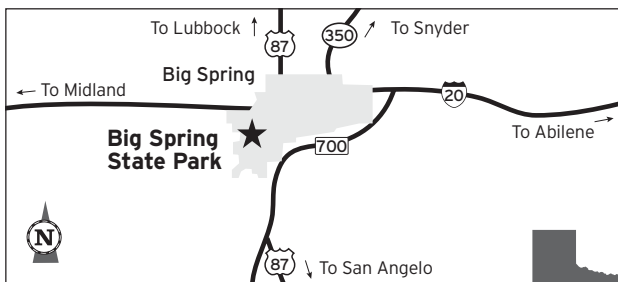

Trails and Nature Watching: Hiking, biking and nature trails. Great diversity of plant and animal life.

Scenic Overlook Drive: CCC-built loop road constructed with huge limestone blocks.

Weddings and Group Picnics: By arrangement.

Located in Howard County,
within the city limits of Big Spring,
