STATE PARK

Atlanta State Park is nestled in the cool green pineywoods of northeast Texas and located on picturesque Lake Wright Patman. This large reservoir is ideal for fishing, sailing, boating, water skiing and swimming. Long before settlers arrived here, Caddo Indians farmed the area. Today's visitors may savor the park's many recreational opportunities—both natural and man-made. Bring a camera for a wide range of plant and animal photo opportunities.

Camping: Campsites with water and electricity, or full hook-ups.

Group Facilities: Group picnic area with shelter (capacity 100); also an amphitheater.

Picnicking: Picnic sites with tables, water and grills.

Swimming: Designated sandy swimming beach.

Recreation: Playground, sand volleyball courts, basketball courts and horseshoe pits.

Boating: Boat ramps. Also sailing and skiing. Canoe rentals.

Fishing: Good year-round catches of crappie, catfish, sandbass and black bass.

Trails: 3 miles of hiking and nature trails.

Texas State Parks Store: One-of-a-kind souvenirs, ice.
