Martin Creek Lake

STATE PARK

Among the pines and hardwood forests of East Texas lies Martin Creek Lake State Park, which combines scenic camping areas with excellent fishing opportunities. Here visitors can choose a “civilized” campsite or trek to the east side of a small island for a night of primitive camping beneath the pines. Martin Creek Lake, warmed in the winter by a power plant, provides fine year-round fishing for crappie, largemouth bass and catfish.

Camping: Lakeside and regular campsites with water and electricity (50 amp premium). Also primitive sites and screened shelters.

Cabins: Two cabins (accommodates four) and two air-conditioned cottages (accommodates five).

Group Facilities: Group picnic pavilion (capacity 75).

Picnicking: Day-use area with shelters, tables and grills.

Swimming: Swimming beach.

Fishing: Lighted fishing pier. Excellent fishing opportunities that includes crappie, largemouth bass, sunfish and channel catfish.

Boating: Boat ramps. Also water skiing.

Trails: 6.5 miles of hiking and mountain-bike trails.

Texas State Parks Store: One-of-a-kind items, gifts, etc.

Located in Rusk County, four miles southwest of Tatum on Texas 43, then south on C.R. 2183 until C.R. 2181D.
